CARTHAGE HIGH SCHOOL

Carthage, Texas

Foreword

Carthage High School means many things to many different people. But, to all, it represents friends, classmates, and teachers. In each activity, the familiar faces of these special people make ballgames, clubs, or pep rallies more enjoyable, and tests or homework more bearable.

It is this spirit of friendship and helpfulness that we, the staff, have tried to incorporate in this 1964 PINE BURR through the faces of Carthage youth.

A
Special
Face

MRS. MAUREEN BIGGERSTAFF

For the students of Carthage High School, the face of Mrs. Maureen Biggerstaff is a familiar and a well-loved one. In her Latin classes and in her Junior and Senior English classes, she is a vital link in the chain of teachers who prepare the students for their future. Because of her years of loyal service in our school, and because of the respect and admiration she has earned from her fellow workers and her pupils, the 1964 PINE BURR staff affectionately dedicates this annual to Mrs. Maureen Biggerstaff.

memory, Carthage, hail to thee.

Administration and Faculty

The fact that Carthage High School has been recognized as one of the outstanding schools of the state and the nation is due to the effort of the administration and faculty. Administrators have studied new methods of school organization and planning. Teachers have become aware of latest innovations in curriculum. The dedicated efforts of these people keep CHS up-to-date and running smoothly.

MR. Q. M. MARTIN
Superintendent

A second tour of Russian and the Scandinavian countries by Mr. Q. M. Martin, superintendent, provided him with further knowledge of the schools in that area of the world.

His understanding of the American versus the European schools plus his accomplishments locally makes him foremost in the Texas education scene.

Trustees Plan for Growth

Mrs. Elizabeth White is PBX operator.

Carrying out the plans begun last year, the Carthage Board of Education has remodeled the high school, added several classrooms to Baker and broken ground for a new gym at Koonce. These changes are carrying forth the improvements to provide for the increased enrollment in the upper grades. The senior high school, last year, housed the top five grades and now holds the top four. The eighth grade was kept at Koonce which became Koonce Junior School. The Koonce School now contains the seventh and eighth grades.

Carthage Board of Education is constantly seeking ways to improve the school plant and to help the administration and faculty provide better education for the Carthage youth.

MR. LOUIS ROBINSON
Principal

Mr. Louis Robinson, high school principal, has guided CHS for fourteen years. He taught and coached in this school system and served as Jr. High principal before occupying his present position. He attended Baylor University and received his BA and MA.

MR. E. B. MORRISON
Administrative Assistant

Mr. E. B. Morrison first came to Carthage in 1931. Until 1942, he served as head football coach, principal of what is now Baker Elementary School, junior high principal, and baseball coach. He returned to Carthage in 1957 and has held his present position since then. He received his BA and MEd from the University of Texas.

MR. GRADY LaGRONE Guidance Counselor

Guidance counselor Grady LaGrone has been employed by the Carthage school system since 1942. He came to Carthage as high school principal and served as acting superintendent during the war. In 1946 he became principal of Koonce Elementary School. Two and a half years ago he left this position to become high school guidance counselor. He received his BA and MA from Stephen F. Austin State College.

Administrators Provide Leadership

Mrs. Arlee Bush serves as secretary to Mr. Louis Robinson, principal.

Mrs. Elaine Riall is Mr. Morrison's secretary.

Others Provide Service

These four members of the staff provide special services for both students and faculty. Mrs. Mildred Kyle was selected as the first person to provide Special Education services for Koonce and high school. Mrs. Shaw, in addition to her Audio-Visual Directorship, has taught science in Koonce. Mrs. Tatum serves all the schools in her capacity as nurse. Mrs. Shumate became high school attendance secretary this year when her office was built to adjoin the high school office.

MRS. MILDRED KYLE

MRS. JANIE SHUMATE

MRS. LOU TATUM

MRS. NETTIE SHAW

Administration Makes Grade Changes

Changes were made in grade arrangements this past year in the Carthage school. The eighth grade was moved to Koonce Junior School, and the sixth grade became a part of Baker Elementary.

Since the high school now contains only four grades, improvements have been made in some departments.

An addition of classrooms to Baker Elementary enabled the change-over to take place.

A guidance library has been established adjoining the attendance office for the benefit of students who are planning for college or careers.

A new attendance office has been paneled next to the high school office.

The journalism department moved to more spacious quarters, and students now work in a three room suite.

Linda McKissack won second in extemporaneous speaking in regional.

Winning third in the state meet in extemporaneous speaking was Robert Gray.

Lynnell Jackson and Reba Harris placed second in the state meet in girls' debate.

Activities

Life at CHS provides many opportunities for all students. From the first pep rally in the fall to graduation night in May, time is filled with assemblies, receptions, special concerts, and parties. Everyone will remember the sweetheart party, the Sadie Hawkins dance, the banquets, the prom, and the commencement exercises. These are our happiest memories.

Assemblies Add Variety to Student Life

Mrs. Leila LaGrone gives an inspiring, dramatic reading during the choir's Christmas assembly.

During the school year, various organizations presented assemblies for the student body.

The choir, band, and drama departments all worked hard to bring inspiration and enjoyment to CHS'ers.

David Copeland and Jan East escort Sweetheart Ann Barton off the football field.

Ann Barton, crowned 1963 Football Sweetheart, is a cheerleader, vice-president of the Student Council, and Miss CHS. She also serves on the PINE BURR staff and is a member of the A Cappella Choir. Ann was escorted by halfback Jan East.

Chosen to serve as Ann's court were Connie Rebert, Georgia Scott, Charlotte Shell, Jan Smith, Kay Thornton, and Toni Trimble.

Connie, a cheerleader and Co-Sweetheart of the Industrial Arts Club, was escorted by fullback Mike Brassell.

Georgia, escorted by guard David Alexander, is a cheerleader and a member of the CARTHAGINIAN staff.

Charlotte, captain of the Pep Squad and of the girls' basketball team, was escorted by halfback Robert Brady.

Jan, nominated by center Marlin Bush, is a member of the A Cappella Choir and the Pep Squad.

Kay was escorted by quarterback Mike Hopson. Kay is a co-captain of the Pep Squad and captain of the girls' basketball team.

Toni, the duchess of halfback James Morris, is a captain of the Pep Squad and Miss Junior.

The Bulldog team voted for their Sweetheart by secret ballot. The results were not announced until the presentation.

Glorese Reed was elected '64 Basketball Sweetheart. Bill Phillips was Glorese's escort.

Mike Hopson, Key Club president, presents Sweetheart Carolyn Smith with a charm.

Pep Rallies Boost Bulldog Spirit

The Nacogdoches bonfire symbolizes the fighting CHS spirit.

The 1963-64 school year was a spirit-filled one. Enthusiastic CHS'ers participated in the traditional Nacogdoches bonfire, the burning of the Jacksonville Indian, the mourning candle lighting and silent meditations, the impromptu rotunda pep rallies, and the good-luck rally for the Girls Basketball team as they left for Regional. These activities helped to spur the Bulldog teams on to victory.

Sports

Many Carthage youth have represented the school in sports activities this past year. Some teams have won; some have lost. But the success of this year's program is not measured by that. It is measured by the training received by the students who participated.

Season of Memories

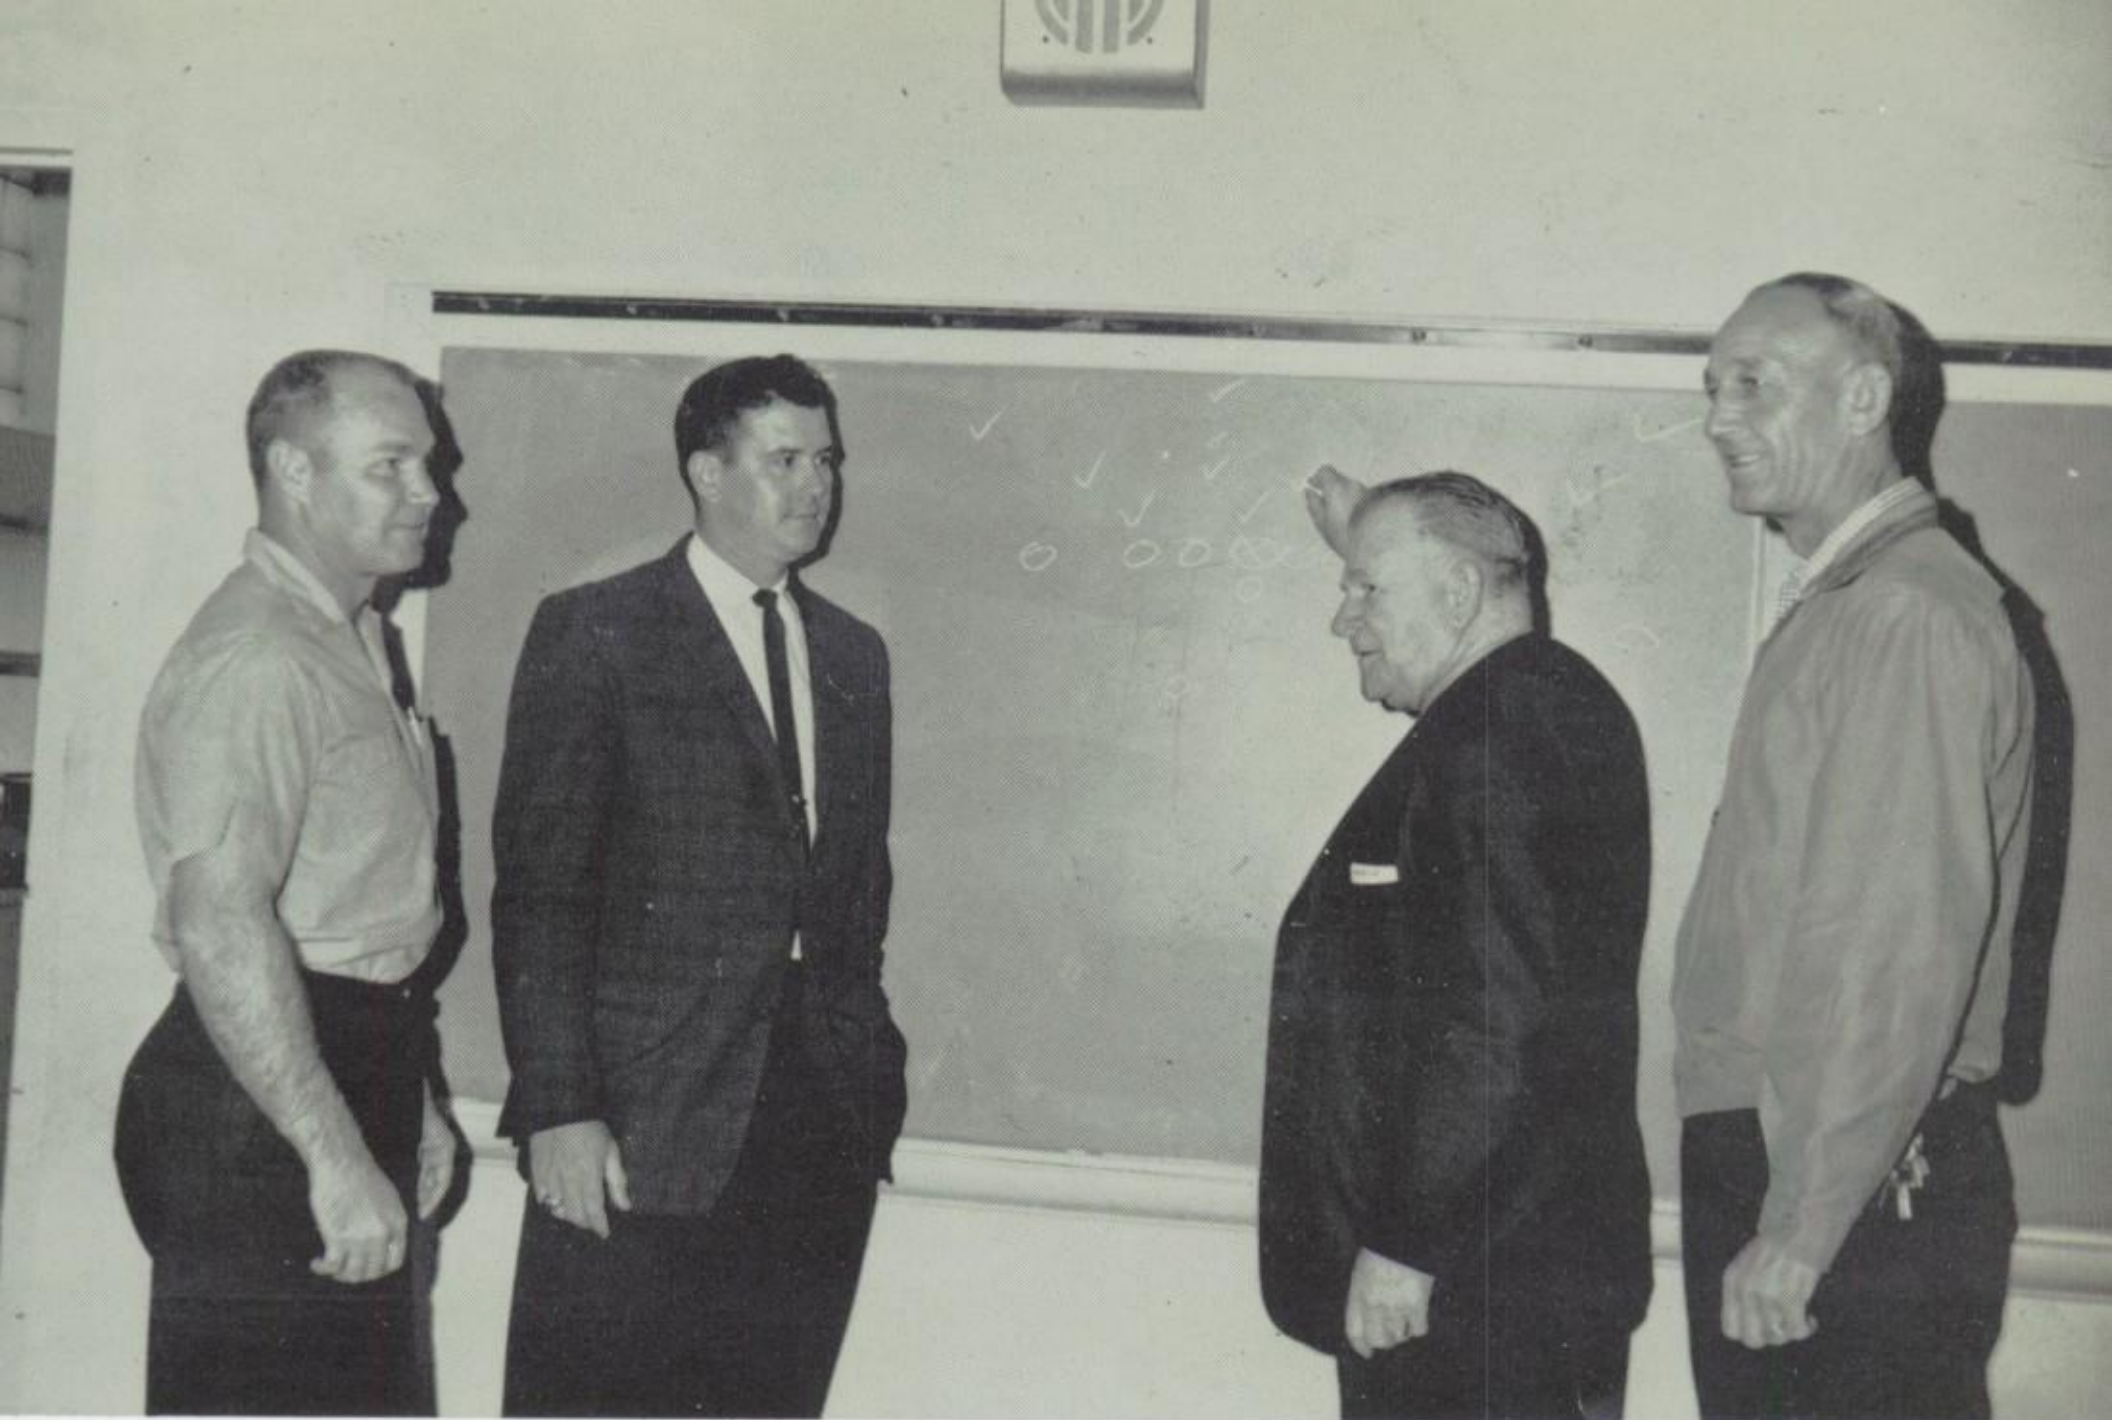

The Carthage Bulldog football team of 1963 completed their last season under Coach J. E. Willis with four wins, one tie, and five losses. Those placing on the All-District team were Mike Screws and David Copeland, with Honorable Mention going to James Morris, John Underwood, and Mike Brassell.

The Bulldogs played six district games and four non-district ones. Of these ten schools played, two of these were 4-A schools, and the others were 3-A. The T-formation was the chief attack used by the squad. Thirteen seniors graduated from the team this year. Returning lettermen for the 1964 squad will number eleven.

Jan East and Mike Screws were chosen by their teammates at the end of the season to serve as captains.

Season of Effort

A very determined Boys' Basketball Team of 1963-64 ended their season under Coach Bill Tatum with nine wins and three losses in district play. There are seven teams in District 7-AAA including Carthage. The Bulldogs played each team twice, totaling twelve games for the district season.

Serving as captains were Seniors David Bazer and Billy Phillips. Also, three other seniors graduated from the team. Returning for the '64-'65 squad will be three lettermen.

Those placed on the All-District team were David Bazer and David Copeland with Honorable Mention going to Robert Brady and Billy Phillips.

Season of Victories

For the first time under the capable coaching of Miss Sandra Walker, the Girls' Basketball Team of 1963-64 gained the title of Bi-District Champs. The girls journeyed to Regional Tournament in Denton, but were defeated in the first game. But to have won the district itself was a difficult task. In 14-AA the girls had an outstanding record of six wins and one loss. Defeating Canton for Bi-District gave them a 7C-1 district record.

Graduating from this year's team were three seniors. Two of which were chosen by their teammates to serve

Organizations

Organizations are a vital part of Carthage High School. They provide each student with an opportunity to further his participation in his particular interest. Most extracurricular activities serve the school as well as concentrate on an area of interest.

Council Reflects

Organization heads in the Student Council are: FIRST ROW: Jerry Dorman, Distributive Education; Scotty Bates, Industrial Arts; L. Jackson, PINE BURR editor; Maritha Dison, Drama Club; Susan Moore, International Relations Club; Margaret Harkrider, PINE BURR business manager; Judy Clabaugh, CARTHAGINIAN editor; Pat Blackwell, Future Homemakers; SECOND ROW: Joe Beard, Future Farmers; Bill Marshall, Future Teachers; Carolyn Smith, Youth for Christ; Paula Blackwell, Future Nurses; Francey Fitch, Band; Barbara Daniels, Business Club; THIRD ROW: Kathleen McKee, Spanish Club; and Jerrilyn Marshall, Junior Future Homemakers.

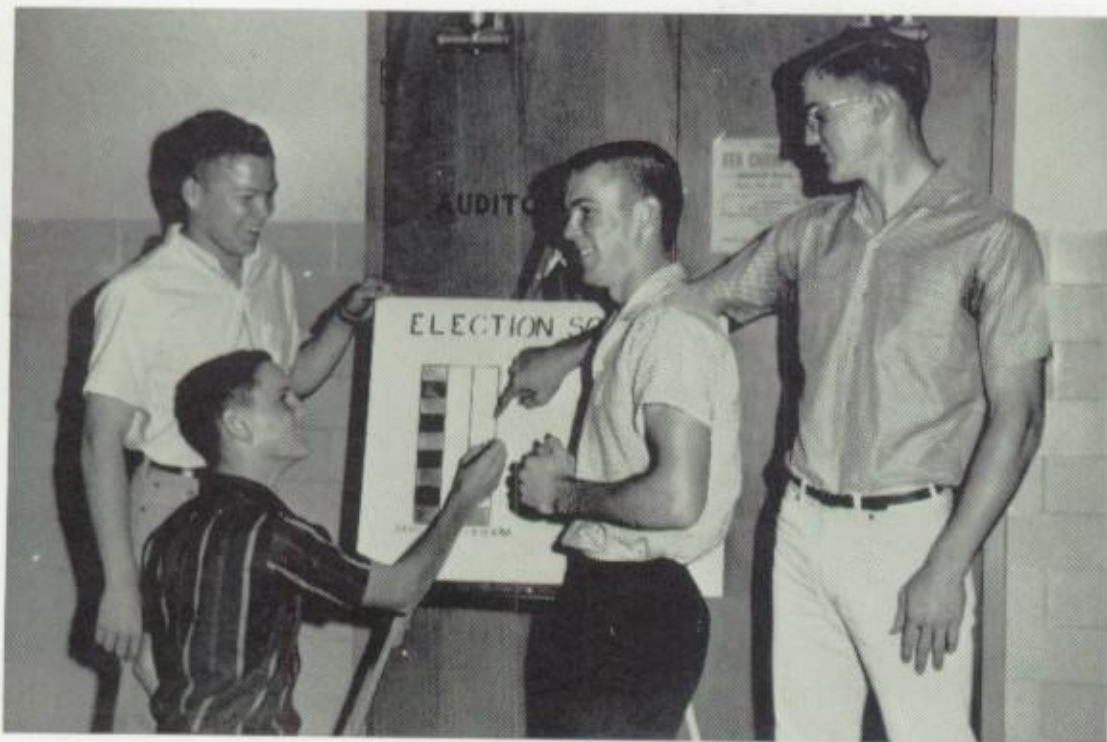

The officers of the Student Council are Linda McKissack, treasurer; Paula Blackwell, secretary; Ernest Higginbotham, president; and Ann Barton, vice-president.

Composed of one representative from each of the senior high homerooms, heads of the CHS publications, and organization presidents, the Student Council meets during the homeroom period on Monday morning and has two hour-long meetings during each six-weeks.

Their activities included planning receptions after the home football games, passing out football programs, holding the homecoming presentation and Sweetheart Dance, selling football ribbon, working in concession stands, and conducting pep rallies.

Student Body

The Class Presidents who are members of the Student Council are keeping the basketball attendance chart up to date.

The PINE BURR Staff has experienced a "harrassing" year while working on the 1964 annual. The addition of the Koonce School caused the annual to be reorganized and the dummy completely changed, but finally everything worked out just fine.

Four members of this staff attended a workshop at Texas A&M in July where they prepared the dummy. Also three members represented the staff at the Texas High School Association in Denton.

The 1963 annual received an All Texas Rating and also a Certificate of Merit from the National Scholastic Yearbook Association.

Miss Virginia Knapp, advisor, consults on the phone about the PINE BURR.

Jon East, circulation manager, sells plastic annual covers; and Nancy Heaton, senior editor, plans her section.

Carthaginian Tells

Twenty-nine members made up the CARTHAGINIAN Staff in 1963-64. The newspaper is a member of the Texas High School Press Association and the Interscholastic League Press Conference. It has an All Texas rating from the Texas High School Press Conference, and the Award of Distinguished Merit from the Interscholastic League Press Conference.

CARTHAGINIAN Staff members attended Careers in Journalism at Southern Methodist University, Texas High School Press Association Convention at Denton, Interscholastic League Press Conference in Austin and the Interscholastic League Press Conference Writing Contest in Houston. Staff members also had a Christmas Party and a trip to Shreveport for lunch and a movie, and an all day picnic at Lake Murvaul.

Judy Clabaugh, editor, Miss Virginia Knapp, adviser, and Susan Moore, business manager, prepare for another paper.

Georgia Scott and Lynnell Jackson, associate editors, and Sharon Hull, assistant editor, prepare an assignment sheet.

Library Assistants Serve CHS

The chief purpose of the Library Club, which consists only of assistants, is to improve the CHS library. Other related purposes of this club are to arouse further enthusiasm for books and reading and to encourage interest in the library profession.

Each of the assistants gives at least one study hall period to help in the library. They assist in finding reference materials, check books in and out, and in doing general library work as well as helping to keep the books repaired and in usable condition. These students also prepare bulletin board displays for the library.

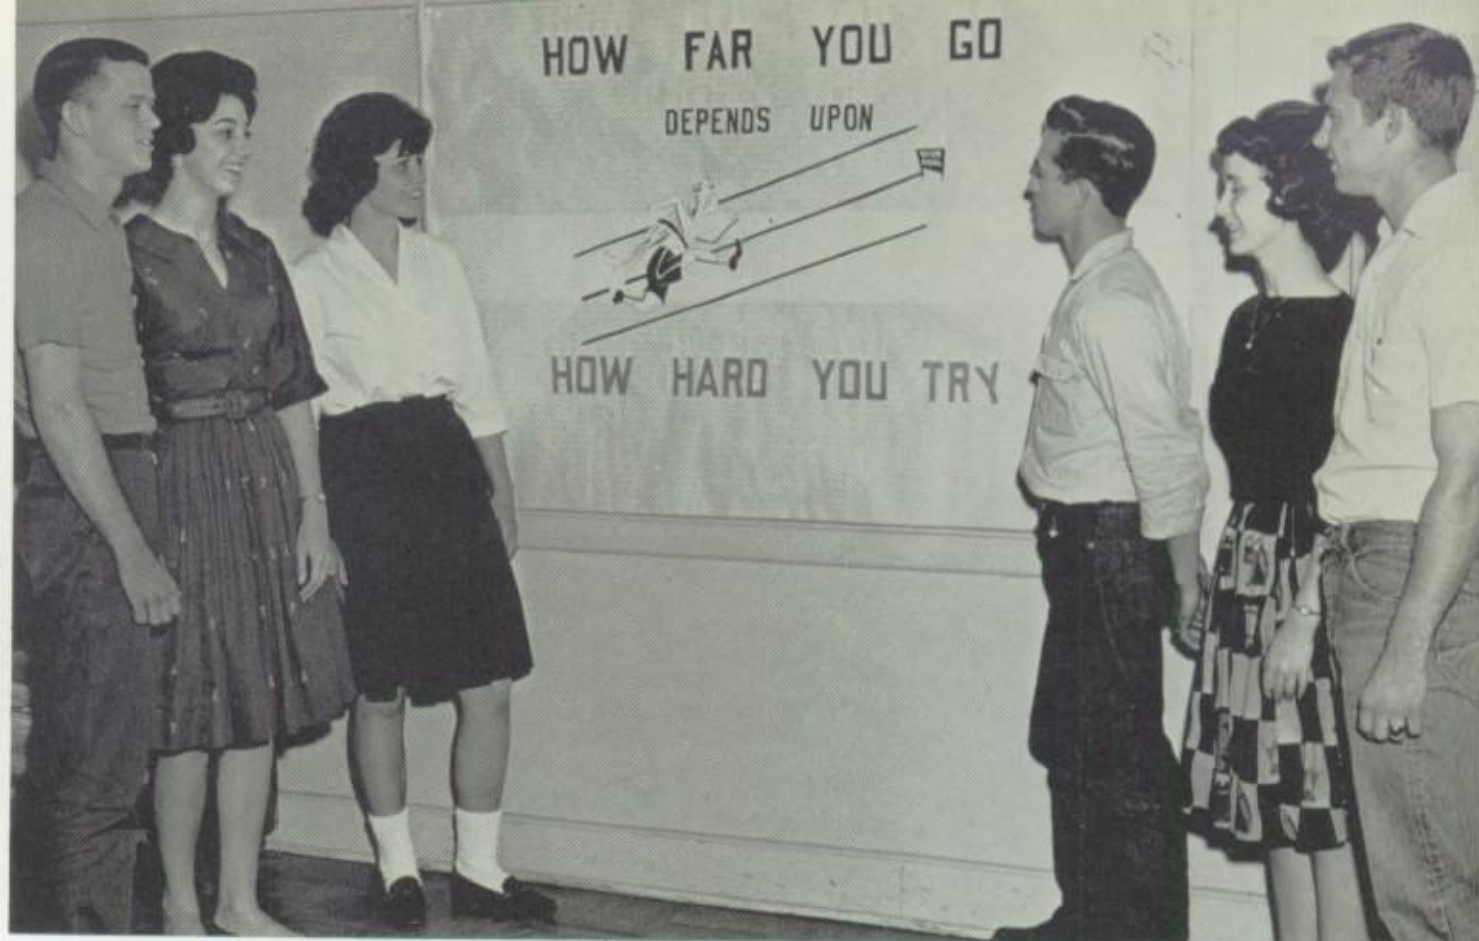

This year the club presented a program for assembly, prepared a display for the rotunda, and made book marks for students to use during library week.

The members of the Library Club are SEATED: Wynell Marshall, Mary Jane Latham, Patricia Holder, Sandra Monroe, Jennifer Riley, Gayle Winfrey, Jo Ann Hooper; STANDING: Glorese Reed, Cherry Hood, Judy McCormack, Kennedy Dennard, Bonnie Briery, Doris Bailey, Barbara Jones, Nancy Kaufman, and Rebecca Holland.

Working half of the school day, each student prepares himself to accept the responsibility of a job in later life. This program enables students to earn money while they receive an education.

Mr. Leland Stracener, sponsor, has been the guiding hand in helping coordinate the work. The local merchants help by providing the positions, the opportunity and the training for these students.

Officers of the D.E. club are Jerry Dorman, president; Glenda Crawford, reporter; Linda Coleman, scrap book editor; James Brevard, photographer; Alice Lawrence, secretary-treasurer; and Fred Denton, vice-president.

Future Nurses Study Duties

The Future Nurses entered a float in the Christmas Parade.

The Future Nurses not only teach fundamentals of nursing to its members, but also take part in the local hospital care on Saturdays. This practical experience gives each girl a chance to determine if this field is the one she desires to enter. Girls who give thirty-six hours of service to the hospital receive caps.

The Future Nurses participated in the Christmas Seal Drive, worked in the concession stand at basketball games, sold programs for the Gas Bowl Tournament, hosted a Mother-Daughter Banquet, and prepared a display case in the rotunda for part of the activities this year.

The officers of the Future Nurses Club are: Doris Bailey, scrap book chairman; Susan Smith, reporter; Paula Blackwell, president; Sandra Parker, vice-president; Carolyn Smith, cap chairman; and Janie Mason, photographer.

This year the Future Teachers Club has eighty-three members, the largest enrollment for this club in the story of CHS.

The purpose of the Future Teachers Club is to acquaint students with the teaching profession. During the year the members have an opportunity to teach for one day for some teacher in the school system.

The club gives to a senior member of the club a $100 scholarship to Panola College. The students who are interested apply for the scholarship and one is chosen to receive it.

FTA had a Christmas Party, dance, and a car wash during the year.

The officers of the Future Teachers Club are: Tinka Brown, historian; Linda Davis, reporter; Sharon Hull, vice-president; Jane Poss, treasurer; Bill Marshall, president; and Susan Kane, secretary.

The sponsors of the Future Teachers Club are Mrs. Sarah Ross and Mrs. Hazel Kyle.

Industrial Arts

The officers of the Industrial Arts Club are: Earl Clabaugh, reporter; Randy Davis, vice-president; Doris Bailey, secretary; Linda Reed, sweetheart; Scotty Bates, president; Connie Rebert, co-sweetheart; and Bob Fleming, treasurer.

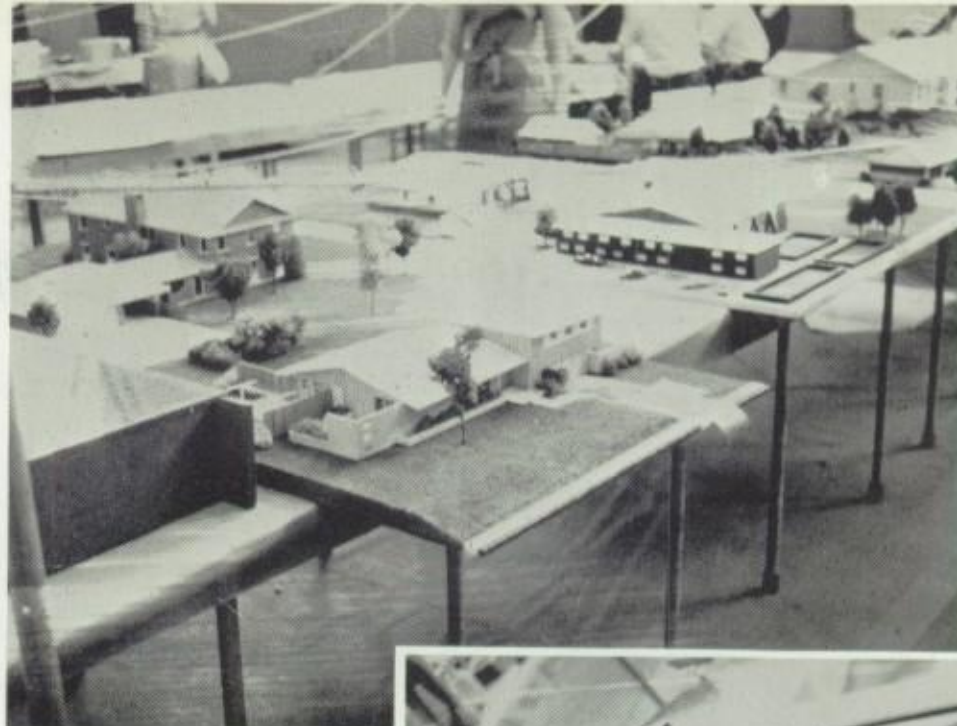

The Industrial Arts Club is a affiliation of the Texas Association, and it is one of the leaders of the state organization in East Texas.

This year, the chapter has made field trips to Knox L. Power Plant and Kilgore Cement works, sponsored a display in the Rotunda of outstanding student work, entered examples of the furniture in contest, sponsored a float in the Christmas Parade, worked in the concession stand at basketball games, and attended the Student State Fair at Texas A&M.

The Carthage Chapter has made progress in maintaining interest, not only at Carthage, but also throughout East Texas.

Bonnie Rebert, top, and Linda Reed, bottom, are the Co-sweethearts of the Industrial Arts Club.

The model houses above and the guitars at the right were winners in the State Industrial Arts Fair at Texas A&M University.

A Texas Leader

The Industrial Arts Club sponsored a float in the Christmas Parade.

Scotty Bates was elected the State Vice-president of the Texas Industrial Arts Student Association for 1964-65.

The Spanish Club

"Buenos dias!" is a familiar greeting of Mr. Vernon Wooley, Jimmy Harmon, Kathleen McKee, Carol Stough, Marilyn Harrison, Jimmy Hopson, Leonard Bell, Linda Wooley, Donna Sharp, and Christine Rich when the Los Conquistadores meets. The purpose of the club is to learn Spanish culture. Their main project is to make posters of the verb form endings. The club had a Christmas Party, worked in the concession stand, and attended the Pan American Celebration at T.W.U.

The Drama Club

The Drama Club is composed of students who are interested in acting or public speaking.

The members made a trip to the State Fair to see the musical, "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." Other activities were a speech tournament, a Christmas Party, a cake sale, and the concession stand for basketball games.

The members of the Drama Club are: Mr. Warner Dahlberg, sponsor, Suzan Whiddon, Maritha Dison, Roys Cadenhead, Glynda Bates, Murray Magness, Sander Dison, and Cherie Duke.

Debaters Develop Leadership

"Resolved that Social Security benefits should be extended to include complete medical care" is a statement that may frequently be heard from Carthage debaters since that was the debate topic this year. Known throughout the Southwest for the competition and ability of its members, the Carthage debate organization are leaders in the field of debating. The debaters have gained valuable experience in public speaking through their participation in debate tournaments, helping with debate workshops, and debating for local service clubs.

The officers of the Debate Club are: Linda Gray, reporter; Lynnell Jackson, secretary; Ernest Higginbotham, president; and Tommy Duckworth, vice-president.

Future Homemakers of America, a national organization, is in reality more than a club. It is an integral part of the Home-making Education Department. Projects, learning experiences, and activities are carried on in the classroom as well as outside. The program of work is planned on national, state, area, and local levels in order to meet personal, family, school, and community needs.

The officers of the Future Homemakers are: Beverly Berry, second vice-president; Linda Gray, historian; Charlotte Shell, fourth vice-president; Glorese Reed, fifth vice-president; Tinka Brown, first vice-president; Becky Pace, treasurer; Kathleen McKee, third vice-president; Pat Blackwell, president; and Linda Tolleson, secretary.

Ninth Grade Squad Promotes Spirit

The Ninth Grade Pep Squad combined with the Seventh and Eighth Grade squads comprised the cheering sections at the Junior games held on Thursday nights. These girls also participated in the pre-game presentation of the Ninth Grade Football Sweetheart.

The Ninth Grade Cheerleaders are Jerrilyn Marshall, Betty Denton, Susan Tatum, Vickie Haper, and Jackie Shadowens.

International Interest Met

The International Relations Club hopes to strengthen its members' understanding of the political and social world.

The members made two field trips this year: The Folklore Ballet of Mexico in Houston, Texas; and the assembly program at East Texas Baptist College in Marshall, Texas. The club carried on their exchange project with a Korean Girls School by sending a tape recording to them telling of the life of a teenager in Carthage and by sending a CHS annual. They also collected old Christmas cards and stamps to help buy milk for needy children. Other activities of the club were an assembly program, a float in the Christmas parade, programs about foreign countries and customs, and a party featuring foreign costumes and foreign food.

Officers of the International Relations Club are: Susan Moore, president; Jennifer Riley, recording secretary; Gayle Winfrey, corresponding secretary; Tommy Duckworth, parliamentarian; Sammy Reed, treasurer; Rebecca Holland, vice-president; and Pat Higginbotham, reporter.

Audio-Visual Helps

This organization performs a service to the students, teachers, and patrons of the community by their perfection in the skills learned in operating machines used in both learning and entertaining. The many hours of service these students give operating the machines owned by Carthage Independent Schools are taken from their study periods. The Audio Visuals Club is affiliated with the national organization and is an active participant in its work.

Business Club Aids CHS

The officers of the business club are Sherry Brazzil, Peggy Fleming, Barbara Daniels, and Martha Wooten.

Sponsor, Miss Bess Lacy, and James Eubanks look on as Nancy Wilkerson and Kim Robinson operate the adding machines.

Sponsored by Miss Bess Lacy, the CHS Business Club's aim is to prepare students for the business world. Their main project is to bring up-to-date the names and addresses of the Carthage alumni from the 1950's to the present.

The members worked in the concession stand for basketball games, had a Christmas Party and sponsored two cars in the Christmas Parade during this year.

Diane Hull, Peggy Fleming, Sherry Brazzil, and John Woods work in the concession stand.

Zyral Sutlive, Pauline Barrett, Patsy Cranford, and Nancy Wilkerson put baseball posters in the CHS halls.

Martha Wooten, Ronnie Tompkins, Judy Giles, and Nancy Giles check the alumni file.

Lena LeBleu and Brenda Hugh learn to operate the electric typewriter while Libby Nichols and Robert Boun use the paper cutter.

Sue Nutt Davis, who graduated with the class of 1964, returned the last semester to complete her senior year.

Buddy Davis joined the student body at mid-term.

The school custodians are Mr. King Soloman; Mr. Thuston Hunt; and (not pictured) Mr. George Gist.

Debbie Chandler participated in the school-by-phone program while recuperating from an operation.

Miss Clara Sue Poore is also a member of the maintenance staff.

The cafeteria workers are: Ida Brown, Ema Scott, Juanita Robinson, Johnnie Pitts, Cosette Chamness, Hazel Cross, Eugenia Ratley, and Reba Cromwell.

Student Body

The students are the life blood of the school. They are the reason for the activities, the sports, the organizations, and even this annual itself. This is Carthage High School.

Paula, Ernest, Ann, and Linda plan Student Council projects for the year.

Koonce Settles to New Routine

*Best wishes
Mr. Cariker*

Although the administration and faculty of Koonce Junior School are not new to Carthage, the concept of the Junior School is a new innovation. The administration and faculty are working to prepare the seventh and eighth grades students for high school responsibilities. They sponsor such activities as a Student Council band, choir, pep squad, and a full athletic program of football, basketball, and track.

The Six Most Outstanding of Koonce Junior School

Six outstanding students were selected by the Koonce Junior School faculty to honor those students who have five basic qualities. These qualities include scholarship, leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism. The teachers feel that these attributed are needed by every student and by pointing out those members of the group who have these potentials they may set an example for those students who follow.

Koonce faculty chose these pupils by secret ballot, and these students were presented to the Koonce student body at the PINE BURR party in February.

Mrs. Delores Blackwell and Mrs. Betty Bounds sponsor this group. They combine with the ninth grade to yell at a game.

Cheerleaders lead a yell for assembly.

These are the boys who make a Pep Squad necessary.

Nedra Johnson, LeAnne Duckworth, Lois Hodges, Martha Hanna, and
nda Booth wait for school to start.

Koonce Settles to Routine

Pupils change classes.

Students attend assemblies each week.

Student Council President Bob Bustin presides at as-semblies.

Money is collected at the "slave auction."

Earl Cariker, Jr. takes up money as "slaves" are sold.

LeAnne Duckworth honors Mr. Glenn Brooks with a dance at the PINE BURR party.

Students Enjoy Pine Burr Party

Lisa Smith, Susan Culum and Charlotte Salter sing at the Koonce and the High School PINE BURR party.

Bob Gerardy and friend dance a slow number.

Jan Jones and Rodney Fant enjoy themselves at the PINE BURR party.

Mr. Dean Christianson leads the Koonce band as they play in the annual spring concert.

Spellers who participated in the Shreveport Journal spelling bee are: Bobby Brown, Barbara Whitely, Charlene Soape, and Patricia Wright. Mrs. Martha Hopkins sponsored the group.

Activities Round Out School Year

KJS'ers have a bird's-eye view of the FFA rodeo parade.

Students listen as the high school Pop band entertains them at an assembly.

Advertisers

An important part of any annual is its advertisers. Besides receiving results for advertising, they enable Carthage High School to have an annual. These are the friends who are interested in the youth of Carthage.
